SEE WHAT PEOPLE SAY ABOUT BRAINWARE UNIVERSITY

According to Risabh Ghosh, a B.Tech CSE student, he stated that he chose the university because of "strong value for money" provided by the university. He had also applied to Adamas University and Swami Vivekananda University. Upon comparing options, he found that Adamas University was charging nearly INR 8,00,000 for the B.Tech in CSE, whereas Brainware University charges nearly INR 4,19,600 for the entire B.Tech course, which was nearly half the amount at Adamas University. Swami Vivekananda University might have had a lower fee
